Beth,

I'm following up with you regarding my email from two weeks ago. The judge would like to us to come up with a deposition schedule for next week's status, and the outstanding discovery will be necessary for any upcoming depositions. Please confirm no later than this Friday that we'll receive the outstanding discovery by 2/14, otherwise we'll plan to raise the issue at the status.

Thanks,
Danielle

I received a number of materials over the last couple of days. They just need to be prepared for disclosure. So I will be producing them shortly. I agree we need to talk about depositions. I can do that late afternoon today, if you are available. We also need to discuss special rep.
